Why do I feel alone in my cave
Why when I can reach you night and day

I bought and bought and bought a hundred phones
I'm talking talking talking and I'm still alone
I read you I see you I hear you anytime I like
The world is so small now and you are so far
Oh you are so far

The world is all around me
And I know I will not find you in my heart
I lost the password of my heart
City's all around you
And you know you will not find me in your heart
You lost the login of your heart

We're tryin' to find a new
Date to replace the cancelled one
Our planners just aren't matching but
We will keep in touch
Sure we will keep in touch
We will keep in touch touch touch
Touch me please

Why then do I feel a stone in my chest
Why when I can reach you oh so fast

I write 'love', I know how
To spell your name
You reply 'love', you know that
The spell is not the same
I read you I see you I hear you anytime I like
The world is so close now and you are so far

Oh you are we are so smart

The world is all around me

And I know I will not find you in my heart

I lost the password of my heart

City's all around you

And you know you will not find me in your heart

You lost the login of your heart

Friends are all around us and we know they will not find us in their heart

We lost the password of our heart – our Heart

Heart our Heart

It's so hard it's so hard – it's so hard

The world is all around me

And I know I will not find you in your heart

In your heart

The city's all around you

And you know you will not find me in my heart

My heart

Let me pass – the word
