

Zombieland

Walked through the city just the other day
I couldn't find no love in me at all
Read all the holy books, I even prayed
Yet arrogance here won't fall

I watched the faces and they watched mine
Looking for traces of something Real
The world seems over, we're left behind
Digging through stone and sex-appeal

The roads were empty, zombies everywhere
Many attracted to me although blind
I said here is nothing to get, they don't really care
Zombies just suck the last blood of life

I listened to lectures and I signed in
The bringers of message looked so good so crushed
They showed me the light but dark walked right in Demons seducing to honour the lust

The pretty ballerinas walking queenly
Never knew what to do with them
The city is puking poison, lost its breathing
It's showing freedom to be cramp

The roads were empty, zombies just everywhere
Their eyes reflected to me human life
Can only cry until I get dry again
Zombies just suck the last drop of life

It's true I never managed to surrender
To society's lies
Only to loneliness I feel tender
It carries my truth inside

The roads are empty, zombies just everywhere
Many are dead already b't don't realize

They cling on to life as if it's their only friend
Zombies just suck the last blood of life

The roads are empty, zombies just everywhere
Many attracted to me although blind
I say here's no energy for you, they don't really care
Zombies just suck the last drop of life
Zombies just suck the last blood of life

Living the darkness in me, it's all right
I couldn't stand it if the sun always shined
The world is over, we're left behind
Vague memories of humanity
Of you, you and me

The roads are empty, the house is empty
The talking's empty, the body's empty
The heart seems empty, the heart seems empty
The heart seems empty, the heart seems empty
The body's empty, the body's empty
The body's empty, the bodies are empty
The bodies are empty, the body's empty
Fucking shit! The body's totally empty! Good lord!
