Metal

Cherish me, metal me
Don't leave me floating
Lend me your coat, soft metal coat

Let's go into your armour
Oh, the world is cold and hard
This metal we can cherish
Let us stroke it for a start

I Hear the Call of Siren
Let me drown into Her lap
And make love to sexy iron
Cry and cry what She forgets

Oh I know though I'm no Byron
So I have to fail to melt
Oh that pride in you, that tyrant
The glory of the self
The glory of the self

No oceans yet my tears
Oh no holiness enough
To give you humble humble ears
To burn to burn that phoney love

So continue to project
Till finally I Learn
All your poison green and black
Nothing better I deserve
Nothing better I deserve ooh

Torture me with sneaky lies
Please don't make it easy
I'm fed up with your great paradise
It's too quiet, too clean, too greasy

Chain my Heart like you do yours
Barbed wire, metal me well
Close my windows lock my doors
Leave me like you do yourself
Leave me like you do yourself

And the love that still sneaks through
Tries to reach your metal fort
Shoot it back by elite-troops
Don't let it touch your juicy juicy corpse
Guard your death as life itself
Invent a thousand names
To cheer up boring hells
And put them in a frame
Won't you put them in a frame

Throw me in your box with spears
And cherish your possession
Blow in me your holy holy fears
And finish it with acid
Won't you finish it with acid

You ask me if my Heart is rich
Well, my silly but honest answer is:
All I ask, my dear, my dearest bitch
Stop wishing me light love and bliss

Won't you stop wishing me light love and bliss
Won't you stop wishing me light love and bliss
Won't you stop attacking me and the world like this
Finally stop wishing me light love and bliss

Won't you stop attacking me and the world like this
Won't you stop attacking yourself like this
Ooh stop attacking yourself like this
Stop wishing me light your love and bliss

Stop wishing me light your love and your bliss
Won't you stop wishing me light love and bliss
Won't you stop wishing me light love and bliss
Please stop wishing me light love and bliss

Cherish me, metal me
Don't leave me floating
Lend me your coat, soft metal coat
Soft metal coat, soft metal coat
Soft metal coat
