No Value

I told you I Love you
You said that's not your problem
Like always you were right
Like always lonely

I told you I Love you
You said 'that has no value'
It doesn't give you safety
'It's just love, everybody loves'

"If you can", I said, "receive me
This Heart, I mean, that's not the same"
You said you can receive just anyone
'It's not about that, my dear'
I asked you if that's true
I never liked discussions

You said: woman is a whore
And you're just faithful to your nature
I said that I'm a fighter
And you, you are my battlefield

You said you'd always win
For if it gets too close, you simply go
"No", I said, "I do not fight with you
I am your Fight, I don't choose sides"
You didn't understand you walked away
And soon again had to return

I took your body, shook you up
Different waste now left your mouth
"You see", I said, "you're not the same"
You'd even almost start loving me oh love me
'I like so much resisting you', you sulked
'I'll never let you in, relax'

But I attacked you with my silence
And gave space to all your further forms:

All seducing forms
'I'm in love with my resistance, not with you
No room is left for you and I'm not sorry sorry'
"I don't resist your resistance", I said – sad
"No, I do love all of you, your body even"
And you felt repulsion, had to vomit now
You said I'm dirty, saying this

"Let me Touch your body then
Oh let me Prove just who I Am"
You withdrew, protecting heart
As if you could, as if you would be form
I am the Dirt, the Pure I am
You still don't Understand I Am

'Love', you said, 'should happen in the Dark
You make it much too Light, you kill its charms
You kill my love you kill my love kill my love my love'
"My love for you is just", I said, "reflection
Of your love for me you always hide"
You let me touch your hand, your head, your hips, your lips
And soon you felt more reassured

You said you're different now, again, again
You see more clearly now, wider, real
I said "only Truth is stable
And You Know My Heart's the Truth
Make love in Light, as Heart, there's no control no not at all"
You found no time to rest, had to leave
You left, too scared of being left being left

I said "you cannot go, my love, where to
Your body goes, but it ain't free"
'Don't care', you said, 'I have enough of you
I cannot change myself, I follow'
I said "our Fight's not over yet
Love's not Clearly Shining yet"

You said 'You are not the One I'm looking for
You do not fit the picture'
"I never fit, my nature's so
Can Only Love, Freely Love"

'I go' you said, 'I gave enough
Of all this pain you licked and swallowed'

I told you "I Love You"
You said 'that has no value'
You don't play in novels in films or songs
