

When will I have the nerve

When will I come to you
When will I love
When will I have the nerve
To only serve
The Heart – your Heart

When will my fear come true
My body ain't no more enough for you
To bind your Heart
To make you stay
Oh stay

When will I have lived through
All reasons I do use
To believe that it is better
To be me – meeting you
And we try to be together
Not too close – not too far
As two different hearts – hearts

When will you have enough
Of my double tongue
When will you have the nerve
To only serve
The Heart – not me – not a part

Somewhere I do want you
To see my Lie
Somewhere I'm asking you
To make me cry
Make me cry
Make me go down

When will you be through
With all reasons I do use
To believe that it is better
To be me – meeting you
To believe that we're together
Not too close – not too far

As two different hearts – hearts hearts

When will I come to you
When will I love
When will I have the nerve
To only serve
The Heart – your Heart
Heart – Heart

When will I come to you
When will I love
When will I have the nerve
To only serve
The Heart – your Heart
Heart – Heart – Heart – Heart

When will I come to you
When will I love
