

Will you be the one

Will you be the one who'll share my life
The one won't reject but will cry
When love turns out to be no paradise
Will you be the Heart with the Eye

Will you be the one by my side
The one who's not a slave of pride
Who is not obsessed with herself
Who will feel my heart and melt
Feel and melt

Will you be the one willing to sacrifice
Anything you ever have identified as you
That has anaesthetized you too
The truth of your heart
The truth of your heart

Will you be the one who'll bear my heart
The reflection of the dark and contrast
Won't you run away from love
Are you not afraid of life
Of sacrificing death

Will you be the one beyond the two
Letting a lie be crushed by Truth
Will you laugh with me over the 'I'
Will you bear love's child
Bear my child – bear my child

Will you be the one willing to sacrifice
Anything you ever have identified as you
That has anaesthetized you too
The truth of your heart
The truth of your heart

Will you be the one who'll say no to
Delusions and seductions that ain't true
Will you see the one who respects love
Will you be the one who really lives – Love

Justin Heart – Will you be the one

(Repeat:) Will you be the one who'll share my life
The one won't reject but will cry
When love turns out to be no paradise
Will you be the Heart with the Eye

Will you be the one who'll bear my heart
The reflection of the dark and contrast
Won't you run away from love
Are you not afraid of life

Will you bear Love's child
Will you bear Love's child
Will you bear Love's child
Will you bear Love's child
Will you bear Love's child
