Be only Me

Don’t do a thing, love
Just rest in Me
Everything comes
All by itself

You will lose all you have longed for
All that you are still afraid of
All your nice dreams
All your nightmares

Don’t be yourself, love
Be only Me
I’m your plain Truth
Yes, I am You
More than you yourself
So do not do
Anything good
Anything at all

Look in My Eyes, love
You seem so lost
Don’t tell Me stories
They’re endlessly boring
For it’s not You that they reveal
They are just veils they are not real

Don’t do a thing, love
Just rest in Me
Everything comes
All by itself

You will lose all you have longed for
All that you are still afraid of
All your nice dreams
All your nightmares

Come taste My life of boundlessness
Cross all of your borders

All supposed orders
And be free
Leave all your shields
Die in the Real
By being Me

Be only Me, love
Thus find yourself
Find there is no self
There's only Love
You are not different from Me
Once you will surrender you 'll See
Once you will feel
You are not real
Then you are healed
Once you are kneeled
For you will see
You can't be healed
For you are whole
Me already
It's only You I'm looking for
Be totally torn
Be You therefore
Show Me your ego whore

Show your ego whore
The whole ego whore
I am only all and All
You are lonely if you don't show Me
All you've got all you are
The whole show in My Heart
Be only Me, Your Beloved
You'll love it
Be only be only be only all
