

(2003)

It is as it is

It is as it is
It comes as it comes
What can you do
Do to improve
Your life yourself
Your relation situation you are in
You know sooner or later
You gotta cry

Love has its own rules
Thank god we don't need to choose
You cannot change
You can't arrange
Love to flow
The way you wanna go
According to your own
Private goals
To be a loving stone
To enjoy the cold

We don't even know
What Love is, what it is
Then how can you control
The love-bliss, anything
You're longing for
While in fact you're being torn

Love is all, love is gold
Far too precious to hold
No need to frown
Can only drown
In the Sea there is no me
I'm only Free without me
Only Free, without me, oooh

I don't refrain
Just feel the pain
Everything better
Than a dream

I don't complain
Don't listen to the brain
Rattling all the time
Trying to explain
But fighting me fighting you
Fighting the Real
The deeper Truth
Preventing Love
From finding Its own way
Smashing your lonely way
Is there a winner in the way

It is as it is
It comes as it comes
What can you do
Do to improve
You know sooner or later
You gotta cry

Love has its own rules
Thank god we don't need to choose
You cannot change
You can't arrange
Love to flow
The way you want it to go
According to your own
Private goals
To be a loving stone
To enjoy the cold

We don't even know
Then how can you control
The love-bliss, anything
You're longing for
While in fact you're being torn
By desire for the fire
That's already here
When you have disappeared

It is as it is
It comes as it comes
Life is as it is
Life comes as it comes
You are who you are
A star is just a star
Always you are called
To fall back into all

It is as it is
It comes as it comes
You are who you are
